

Industries impose curb on entry of tankers at night

Ahmedabad : While industries at Sachin GIDC are yet to fully comply with the orders of the National Green Tribunal (NGT) on illegal dumping of chemicals following the gas leak incident that had claimed six lives, they have taken some measures to curb the illegal activities. The NGT in its order on Thursday had stated, "All GIDC may have toll (amount may be only token) at entry & exit points and CCTV camera to identify the movement of such tankers and all the tankers should have GPS enabled tracking system for the transportation of all chemicals and wastewater like hazardous waste." Sachin Industrial Cooperative Society (SICOS) has banned the entry of all types of tankers between 8 pm and 7 am in the industrial area.

It has also planned to install barriers at entry points.

When questioned about the implementation of the NGT order, leader of industries in Sachin GIDC, Mahendra Ramoliya said, "We are yet to study the order. Necessary

Film-Industry could do with some post-pandemic cheer and relief: A. Pandit exempted. Experts are hoping that this year, more substantial relief will be provided to the industry which has battled huge economic losses over the last two years. Veteran producer Anand Pandit says, "The film industry could do with some post-pandemic cheer and relief. I hope that especially for theatre owners, there is some help. The industry has seen theatre closures in thousands and with fewer footfalls, survival has been challenging. Speedy loans and tax relief would help them enormously. Tax rebates for initiating new screens would be most welcome. Exhibitors are the backbone of the industry and their survival is important for our financial well-being." (19-10)

Ahmedabad, Turning the desires of a broken heart into music, upcoming artist Darshan Kataria, popularly known as DAKU, releases his latest sad love song, Adhura, in collaboration with Sony Music India. World Television Premiere of the blockbuster 'Antim: on Zee Cinema Ahmedabad, "Tu Pune Ka naya Bhai hai, main pehle se Hindustan ka bhai hoon", this dialogue took the audiences by a storm. 'Antim: The Final Truth' received massive appreciation from the audiences across the country, and with its remarkable performance on the box office became one of the biggest superhits of 2021. Unlike any other Salman Khan film, Antim is more than just a conventional action-drama.

It is a wholesome entertainer with a massive emotional connect, which is massy yet will offer something new to everyone that will keep you hooked to the movie. This Mahesh Manjrekar's power-packed directorial venture bears his stamp from the first frame to the last, pushing his actors beyond the confines of their moulds - Superstar Salman Khan in a never seen before Sikh cop on his quest for benevolence left his fans in an awe of him and Ayush Sharma led a mark with his remarkable transformation as a nefarious gangster! To top it all the electrifying background score is given by the 'K.G.F' fame, music composer Ravi Basrur who made his Bollywood debut with 'Antim'. With believable characters, Antim is not a typical cop chasing the bad guy story and that's what makes it interesting. The engaging build up and unexpected twists & turns in the plot will keep surprising the viewers. (19-2)
